We areÂ sorry but we do not have a system setup to coop your ebooks with. We do however help out authors by offering a free version of your product for us to give away.

Examples:

- » This free version may simply be a sample of the original product with links that will come back to your product page for you to sell.
- » It could also be an entire ebook with links to your site in it.
- » If it has resale rights (or better rights), and a sales page, we may want to purchase the product ourselves. contact@master-resale-rights.com
